

'Real Time, our best friend.'

*David Willey
Carrier Relationship Manager
Applied Systems, Inc.*

"Most independent agencies have the power of Real Time right at their fingertips—they simply should enable it in their management systems. They can interact with all of their companies—without leaving their management systems—in a safe, secure environment. That's a home run.

"Take a few minutes to get started! Your staff will be on the way toward more efficient customer sales and service."
